- ※ According to Yuan Ze University’s Academic Regulations, Article 21: “For all of a student’s courses, if a course is not passed but receives a grade above 40, the course shall be taken again the following semester. If the course is then passed, credits will be awarded accordingly. Failed courses should be repeated in the subsequent semester.” Therefore, if credit received for a required course that spans two semesters is less than 40 in the first semester, students will not be permitted to continue with the course in the following semester.
- ※ For courses marked “(I), (II),” students must complete course (I) before attempting course (II).
- ※ Students must complete 60 credits of Sociology before attempting Sociological Theory .
- ※ Students must complete 60 credits of Internship Practice (I) before attempting Internship Practice (II).
- ※ With the approval of the course instructor and department head, transfer students may attempt Sociology and Sociological Theory courses simultaneously.
